

PLAN HISGEN RALLIES ALL OVER THE STATE

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 11.—Thomas L. Higson returned today from Boston, where arrangements were being made for his gubernatorial campaign, and was delighted to find that a great number of letters had reached his home during his absence, asking him to address rallies in the various

He said a great number of writers had reached his house during the afternoon, and he had to address rallies in the evening.

Mr. Haysen sent the names of the writers to Charles C. Power, South Building, Boston, executive secretary of the Anti-Immigration League, and arrangements will be made to visit the place later in the season.

Mr. Haysen has a number of plans to begin on Monday of next week, although Mr. Power is afraid of some new arrangements that he will still in the near future. He also said Mr. Haysen said that he would appear in every city of the State. This he will try to do.

REFUGEE CASES DON'T ELEC WORKERS

WOLSCOTT, Dec. 11.—Attorney Fournier, a regular patron of the Boston & Albany, announced that he has listed as a
